This bank with its ample capital and surplus, its adequate equipment and facilities, solicits the accounts of manufacturers, wholesalers, retailers and individuals on the best terms consistent with sound banking.

No account too large to be handled satisfactorily; none too small to be appreciated.

When Buying Fuel

The consumer must always figure on the actual amount of heat and comfort that is got ten for the money spent.

We believe that our connections of long standing, coupled with the large amount of fuel that we buy, make it possible for us to sell the very highest grades of Coal and Wood at prices that are cheapest to the consumer.

A trial order of our Coal and Wood, or an opinion from some of our satisfied customers, will prove that our idea of putting quality first is correct.

BRIDE BECOMES INSANE.

Shortly after being pronounced man and wife Thursday by Rev. J. J. Billingsley, Miss Minnie Jemp and Amos Curry, both respectable young people residing near Monticello, N. Y., started on a honeymoon which was to have lasted a week, but was abruptly brought to an end by the bride becoming violently insane. Her condition continued to grow worse, and upon the recommendation of a physician she was removed to the Middletown Asylum.

Miss Jemp first showed signs of extreme nervousness when the minister reached that part of the marriage ceremony which reads: "Do you take this man for your lawfully wedded husband?" He was compelled to ask the question three times before eliciting an answer from the bride.

After the ceremony the couple drove to Fallsburg to take the train, but Mrs. Curry refused to go away, saying she was not married at all, that a physician had been summoned and not a minister to perform the ceremony.

Miss Jemp and Mr. Curry had been sweethearts since childhood and delayed their marriage until Mr. Curry could provide a home for his wife. Mr. Curry had formerly been employed as an attendant at the Middletown Asylum and has now asked for reinstatement in order to be near his wife.

SHOT WIFE AND HIMSELF.

A double tragedy was enacted at York, on one of the public thoroughfares yesterday evening, when Peter Senft, about 45 years old, shot his wife twice in the head and then turned the weapon upon himself, sending a bullet into his own brain and killing himself instantly.

Both had been previously married and had children by their first marriage. It appears that the families could not agree. About three weeks ago there was a brawl and Mrs. Senft took up her residence in another part of the city.

Last night Senft went to his wife's home and tried to induce her to return. The children by her first husband interfered and it is alleged, refused to allow her to go back. A quarrel ensued and the man drew a revolver and fired two shots. One of them struck Mrs. Senft behind the ear. She fell in the doorway. Senft then shot himself and dropped lifeless at her feet.

Mrs. Senft was hurried to a hospital, and is in a critical condition.

Hoarseness in a child subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the disease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given at once or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Contains no poison. Sold by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.
